as per Seho's request,
I began working at the library, and recorded
my observations of the employees on my USB.

However, I
lost the USB,

and for some unknown
reasons, I kept the truth about the librarians
from Seho.

But the USB was recovered at his working site.

In the end,

it reached Seho,
as originally
intended.

When he reads
the content,

he'll know
that I lied.

... What
should I do?

Yes...
because it
revealed what
was in the device.

will he think?

Did I
write that they're mutant
vampires or something?

I didn't
write
down their
weaknesses
as well,
did I?

...I can't remember.

Just how much did I
write...?

Could it
be that...

Chill

created
a rather
dangerous

Nah, we are good.

An idiot like him probably will just thank me and use the content as his novel's material.

They are friends.
Really.

Someone without talent like him can't possibly get his work published.

let alone unknowingly releasing anything to the public.

if only he'd stop pursuing creatures like vampires and monsters, and let go of his unattainable goal, he'd be such an earnest, decent person...

filled with pity...

Even now, he must be working hard towards his dream of becoming an author.

... He mentioned something about working at a cleaning agency?

Seho
Lee,

28
years
old.

When he was 8 years old,
on the way home with parents, they were involved in an accident. He went a coma for a period of
but lost both his parents in the accident.

His parents were killed in an accident, but the accident took off as a child, a car accident involvement. The relative took him in, so
he moved from one
apartment to another
and he reached
the age of legal adulthood.

He met Mara at
a library. She was there when he started to work. She was the first job he found. She was the one who
helped him find a job. She was the one who
helped him find
a job. She was

His

him?

He is the one that helped me when I was a wreck. He's my saviour.

...can be described as a
close friend.

Even though Mara isn't attending his classes at the university presently. In the beginning, he still had to follow up on home assignments. It is my belief that he came here without prior knowledge of the library's true
nature.

...I would more
meanings to be done.
However, for now, that probability of Mara being a spy is low.
